

ARE YOU READY FOR THIS YEAR'S CHALLENGE?

2010 Eat Local Challenge

May 1-31, 2010

The Challenge? Eat local, seasonal foods
at home or locally-owned restaurants
every day for the entire month of May

Registration opens April 1st

www.hogtownhomegrown.com

Look for our Facebook page on April 1st – share your Eat Local Challenge experience

TWO PARTIES THIS YEAR!

May 1st – 12 noon - May Day 2010

Swallowtail Farm, Alachua

May 30th – 4-6pm - Community Celebration

Unitarian Universalist Fellowship, 4225 NW 34 Street, Gainesville

Would your group like a speaker to explain the 2010 Eat Local Challenge?

Contact Stefanie Samara Hamblen - hogtownhomegrown@gmail.com

Be part of the 2010 Eat Local Challenge!

Hogtown HomeGrown is a local newsletter and website with recipes and menus based on seasonal fresh foods.

ARE YOU READY FOR THIS YEAR'S CHALLENGE?

2010 Eat Local Challenge

May 1-31, 2010

The Challenge? Eat local, seasonal foods
at home or locally-owned restaurants
every day for the entire month of May

How can your business or restaurant participate?

- Put a 2010 Eat Local Challenge sign on your door or window (signs provided)
- Showcase local ingredients already used in existing menu items (signs available)
- Create specials featuring local foods (signs available)
- Provide samples of local foods for Community Celebration (May 30)
- Table at Community Celebration with samples and personnel (May 30)
- Donate prize/gift certificate for Community Celebration (before May 30)

*Contact Stefanie Samara Hamblen
352 374-8561 or hogtownhomegrown@gmail.com*

Be part of the 2010 Eat Local Challenge!

Hogtown HomeGrown is a local newsletter and website with recipes and menus based on seasonal fresh foods.